This application must be signed and dated by the applicant before action can be taken. It is understood that this is not a scholarship offer, but only an application to be considered in the scholarship competition if minimum qualifications for the award have been satisfied. I understand that withholding requested information or falsifying this information may result in denial or loss of scholarship at a later date.

As an applicant for the recipient of a scholarship from the Windgate Charitable Foundation through Southern Illinois University Carbondale, I understand that the University has the legal authority to release my name and address, the name of my former high school or college, the name of my award and the award amount. This release is valid for the period of time the tuition scholarship is in effect.

To the best of my knowledge, I meet the requirements for the scholarship. I understand that false representations or statements will disqualify me from the scholarship. I understand that if I receive this award, the University may print my name in the University Honors Day booklet and press releases.

All projects (publications, exhibitions, etc.) completed while the student holds a Windgate Charitable Foundation Scholarship must bear the credit line: "Supported by a Windgate Charitable Foundation Scholarship awarded by the School of Art and Design, Southern Illinois University Carbondale."
